

VON BUELOW IN BAD POSITION

Offered His Resignation to the Kaiser, but the Latter Would Not Accept.

AN OFFICIAL EXPLANATION

HUBBUB AROUSED BY ARTICLES IN LONDON PAPER.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—According to the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, Prince von Buelow, the imperial chancellor, today offered his resignation to Emperor William in consequence of the publication in London of the interview with his majesty, for which the prince took responsibility.

The emperor would not accept the chancellor's resignation, and at the same time permitted Prince von Buelow to publish a full explanation so as to meet the unjustifiable attacks that have been made upon his majesty.

It was announced conclusively at the foreign office tonight that the chancellor would remain in office.

Von Buelow's Explanation.

Prince von Buelow's explanation in the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung is as follows:

"A great portion of the foreign and international press publishes criticisms directed against his majesty relative to the articles in the London Daily Telegraph. These criticisms are founded on the assumption that the emperor permitted the publication of the article without the previous knowledge of the government authorities responsible for the imperial policy. This assumption is unfounded.

"His majesty received from a private Englishman, with a request that he be permitted to publish it, the manuscript of an article in which a series of conversations between the emperor and several English personalities held at various dates, were put together. The various given for the request was in order to make known his majesty's utterances to the largest possible number of English readers, thus serving to improve Anglo-German relations.

Sent to Foreign Office.

"The emperor forwarded this manuscript to the chancellor, who in turn sent it to the foreign office with a note requesting careful scrutiny. The foreign office did not report anything objectionable in the contents, and publication thereupon followed.

"When the chancellor, as a result of the publication in the Daily Telegraph, became aware of the contents of this manuscript he explained to the emperor that he personally had not read it, and that had he done so he would have hesitated and advised against its publication.

"He holds himself alone responsible, and he desires to protect the officials under him. At the same time, he offered to resign, but the emperor would not accept his resignation. On the request of the chancellor, however, his majesty permitted the publication of this explanation so that Prince von Buelow would be in a position to meet unjustifiable attacks on the person of the emperor."

INVADIED THE GIRLS' PARTY

Five Male Students of Nevada University in Scraps Which May Cause Their Suspension.

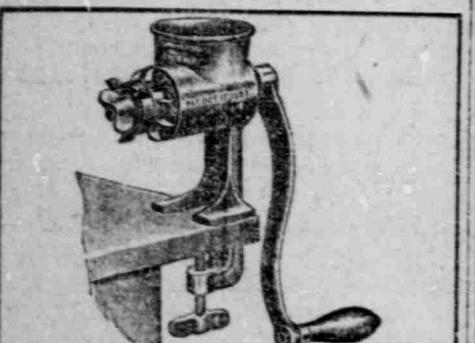

Reno, Nev., Oct. 31.—After invading a sorority party, at which only women were admitted, five male students of Nevada University, K. E. Tillston, J. A. Houlihan, Ralph Dignowity, C. G. Schrappe and Lyle Selby, were captured by police after an exciting chase last night.

At the party, the annual "jinks" given by the Theta Epsilon sorority, some of the young women were dressed in male attire, and others in fascinating costumes, all of them in costumes that were not at all in keeping with the occasion. The fun was at its height intruders were discovered. In the pandemonium that followed, Dignowity was scalded with a pot of boiling water. Others had their clothes ruined with milk and punch thrown by the members.

Police who were guarding the entrance to the hall were called, took after the intruders, who, after a wild flight, reached the gallery and climbed into the rafters. When the police secured ladders the students broke through the skylight, slid down the roof and dropped some fifteen feet to the ground, only to be captured by extra police who had been summoned. One man alone escaped.

The five captured were taken to the police station and their names registered. Punishment will be left to the university faculty. It is expected that five suspensions will follow.

MAKING FACES AT EACH OTHER

Republicans, Disorganized, and With Leaders Outgeneraled, Are in Full Retreat.

(Special to The Herald.)

Chicago, Oct. 31.—"They are on the run," said John E. Lamb, vice chairman of the Democratic executive committee, today, in speaking of the bitter attack made on President Roosevelt by ex-Governor Black of New York, Senator LaFollette's denunciation of Speaker Cannon, the declarations of John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie in support of Judge Taft, and the attempt at apology by the president.

Abusing Each Other.

"The Republican leaders are in full retreat," he said. "With ex-Governor Black of New York skinning President Roosevelt in Carnegie's hall, LaFollette urging the voters of Wisconsin to repudiate Cannon and every Republican congressman supporting him, and Rockefeller and Carnegie in charge of the Republican organization, Roosevelt, Taft and Hitchcock are throwing complicity fits. Their attempt to repudiate Rockefeller will deceive nobody. He is supporting them now as he always has. His Standard Oil contribution of $100,000 four years ago is still in their pockets and he has never demanded it back.

Dare Not Publish List.

"If the Standard Oil has not contributed to the Republican national committee, why not publish a list of their contributions now so that the people may know? They don't dare do it."

"Why is it that they adopt Carnegie, the steel trust magnate, who has made more money out of the iniquitous legislation of the Republican party than any man now living, and is today spending it abroad, who says from his foreign castle that the election of Bryan would be a tragedy, and pretend to repudiate Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate? Are they not a consistent set? The people are awake and will not be misled. The developments of the last few days have made the election of Bryan and Kern a certainty, and there is not money enough in the coffers of the steel and Standard Oil trust combined to purchase it for Taft and Sherman."

CRITICISM OF SUPREME COURT

Francis J. Heney Takes Chief Justice of California to Task.

LATTER MADE A STATEMENT

PROSECUTOR OF RUEF REPLIED IN VIGOROUS TERMS.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Assistant District Attorney Francis J. Heney, who has prosecuted the bribery graft cases in the San Francisco courts for the past two years from the lowest to the highest tribunal in the state, gave out an open letter today in reply to a statement from Chief Justice Beatty, published in a Sacramento paper on April 29. In his statement the chief justice defended the decision of the supreme court in holding that the indictment upon which Former Mayor Schmitz was convicted was improperly drawn and faulty, in that it did not state that Schmitz was mayor of the city, a fact which the supreme court could not go outside the indictment to take judicial notice of.

The Law Itself on Trial.

"It has well been said by a number of prominent speakers and writers," says Heney in his letter, "that the law is now on trial in San Francisco." "It might be well that the efficiency of our present judicial system and the capacity of our people for intelligent self-government is likewise on trial."

"Mr. Heney refers to the action of the supreme court as the 'widely criticised decision of the Schmitz case,' and says that Chief Justice Beatty practically conceded in his letter published in a Sacramento paper that had it contained the allegation that Schmitz was mayor, and as such had power to influence the police commission in the granting or withholding of liquor licenses, the indictment would have been good. The assistant district attorney characterizes it as 'an extraordinary proceeding for the presiding member of the highest tribunal in the state to defend one of its decisions through the public press, that it must be accepted by every one that the decision needs explanation, to say the least."

Mr. Heney then states that he "had nothing whatever to do with the preparation of the indictments in the extortion case," that they were prepared by Hiram W. Johnson, with the assistance of another lawyer, both widely known throughout the state for their knowledge of criminal law, that the indictments were then discussed in his presence; that after the California laws were explained to him he approved and used them, and that he was then, and is still, thoroughly convinced that the indictments correctly and sufficiently charged the offense of extortion under our statutes.

SUICIDE OF A DETECTIVE

George Devere, Employed by Goldfield Mining Company, Blows Out His Brains.

(Special to The Herald.)

Goldfield, Nev., Oct. 31.—With a cry that he was going to kill himself, George Devere, a detective in the employ of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines company, shot himself in the head with an automatic revolver shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon in the house of Clarence Sage, his chief. Despite the desperate nature of the wound and that his brains were oozing from his temple, Devere was half-conscious until he died, and kept talking about the deed.

Devere came to Goldfield from Colorado and was a police officer in Denver for a number of years. He was a man of powerful physique and considered one of the best men on the detective force in Goldfield during the troublous times. About one year ago he was one of a posse which attempted the arrest of Y. L. Kline, a prominent jeweler of Goldfield, and Ralph Gipple, who were robbing the mill of the Nevada Goldfield Reduction company of amalgam. In the excitement Kline, who is said to have shown fight, was killed and it is supposed that brooding over this matter had something to do with Devere's suicide. He was intoxicated at the time of his death and had been morose for several weeks.

Devere was watchman at the Hotel Casey for a number of months and well known to many Salt Lake men who stopped at the hotel.

BRYAN AND PROSPERITY.

(Special to The Herald.)

Chicago, Oct. 31.—During the closing work of the campaign the Democratic national committee has sent out hundreds of thousands of huge posters bearing the words "Vote for Bryan and Permanent Prosperity." These have been placed upon the billboards in scores of cities and towns, and the attention they have attracted has convinced the committee of their effectiveness in counteracting the possible effect of the work of the Republican calamity howlers.

CARBON COUNTY IS DEMOCRATIC

Both Bryan and Knight Assured of Carrying Coal Mining District.

(Special to The Herald.)

Price, Utah, Oct. 31.—Carbon county is safe in the Democratic ranks. The greatest demonstrations that the people of Carbon county have ever seen have been given for the Democrats in this election. The largest rallies that have been held in the county, and the most enthusiastic, have been conducted by the Democratic speakers. The name of Jesse William Knight is loudly applauded by all hearers, both Republicans and Democrats. The statements made by the Inter-Mountain Republican are repudiated in the strongest terms by the Republicans of the county. At a meeting at Clear Creek last night, which was addressed by Alma Greenwood, Levi N. Harmon and W.

F. Olson, and all the candidates on the Carbon county ticket, the ovation received was something that has not been known in the history of Carbon county for many years.

Today the drum corps of Scofield is parading the streets with banners with the names of William Jennings Bryan and Jesse William Knight, and many Republicans are in the parade.

The Republicans, who have been holding meetings up here to very small audiences, left this morning with very sad hearts, and R. G. Miller, president of the stake and the great leader of the Republicans, actually admitted defeat when he left this quarter to go to other places to see if he could not dig up some enthusiasm in favor of the broken-down party in this county. Tonight the Democrats will hold a rally in Scofield. The speakers will be Judge Erickson and Alma Greenwood, and all the candidates on the Carbon county ticket. It is certain that Carbon county will cast its vote for the Democratic ticket.

BELIEF UNSHAKEN.

San Jose, Cal., Oct. 31.—Deputy Marshal McAfee and W. E. Bass of Sherman, Tex., who arrested William Hatfield, the Durham suspect, and accompanied him to this city have departed for Texas. Their last words were: "Hatfield is Dunham." There were no new developments today and no move is likely to be taken in the matter by the local officials until after election.
